Facilitator: Ramsay Cadet, M.Ed., Tucker School Adjustment Councilor

Facilitator: Ramsay Cadet, M.Ed., Tucker School Adjustment Counselor Ramsay Cadet is a passionate individual who loves and enjoys working with people. Over the past several years, Ramsay has worked with children, adults and families in the Boston and South Shore areas delivering home-based individual and family counseling services to many at-risk youths. As a Crisis Clinician at South Shore Mental Health, Ramsay provides emergency psychiatric services to children and adults. Mr. Cadet is fluent in English and Haitian Creole.

With Guest Presenter: Faina Smith, M.Ed., MS

Faina Smith brings over 20 years of practical experience to Milton along with a body of information based on her work with children, families, and professionals, her thorough understanding of child development, behavior management, communication and her passion for helping parents enjoy their children more, struggle less and have a strong life long relationship with them.

Research tells us that parents are the KEY to their children's success at school. This series will provide you with expert information, tips, practice and the support you need and deserve to be YOUR child's key to success at Tucker school.

Participants will have an opportunity to:

- Build relationships with other families and become an important member of your child's school community
- Learn simple things you can do at home to support your child's education
- Develop a better understanding of your child's development
- Explore positive approaches to discipline and communication
- Get to know Tucker School's community of families and staff (including Superintendent of Schools, Mary Gormley and Tucker Principal, Marcia Uretsky)

Registration Information:

- Please register by calling Tucker School at 617-696-4291 or online at cpcmecasld@verizon.net.
- Free childcare will be provided and can be reserved at registration.
- Space is limited and must be reserved by October 11th.
- A commitment must be made to attend all six sessions.
